

INTRODUCTION

CHIOMATM
TALKS

Chioma Talks "Bridging The Gap" is a unique event that brings students from the Toronto District School Board, Toronto Catholic District School Board and the Peel District School Board to meet Bay Street Business Executives. The goal is to create synergies between high school students and a career in the corporate world. The event showcases various speakers and a luncheon. Established by Chioma of Chioma Productions Inc., it is presented under the banner of the ChiomaTalks Educational program in association with Royal Bank Financial Group

Having served as a motivational speaker for high school students for many years, Chioma developed "Bridging The Gap" to help expand the dreams of youngsters. The event takes her 3R message of Respect, Restraint & Responsibility to a whole new level. It is aimed at helping students succeed not only in academics, but also in the real world.

THE 2005 EVENT

RBC's Charlie Coffey, Executive Vice President for RBC, and Chioma, will host bridging The Gap 2005. Honourable Donald Oliver of the Senate of Canada has been asked to deliver a keynote speech on the theme of leadership and civic responsibility. Live performances from Jacksoul and Front man and lead vocalists Haydian Neale will speak about the realities of the business of show business (Fantasy VS Reality), and North Albion Collegiate STOPP dancers will be featured, and Jemeni, 93.5 FM's Morning Show Rush Co-host will be Master of Ceremonies.
